

Proverbs Teaching • Deception • Departure from the Path

THE FALSE BRIDE

Mishlei (Proverbs) 2:19

None that go unto her return
again,
neither take they hold of the paths
of life.

Who is the 'Strange Woman'?

- Seduction away from wisdom
- Departure from covenant
- Turning from instruction

Literally

- Adultery
- Immorality
- Destructive relationships

False doctrine

False systems

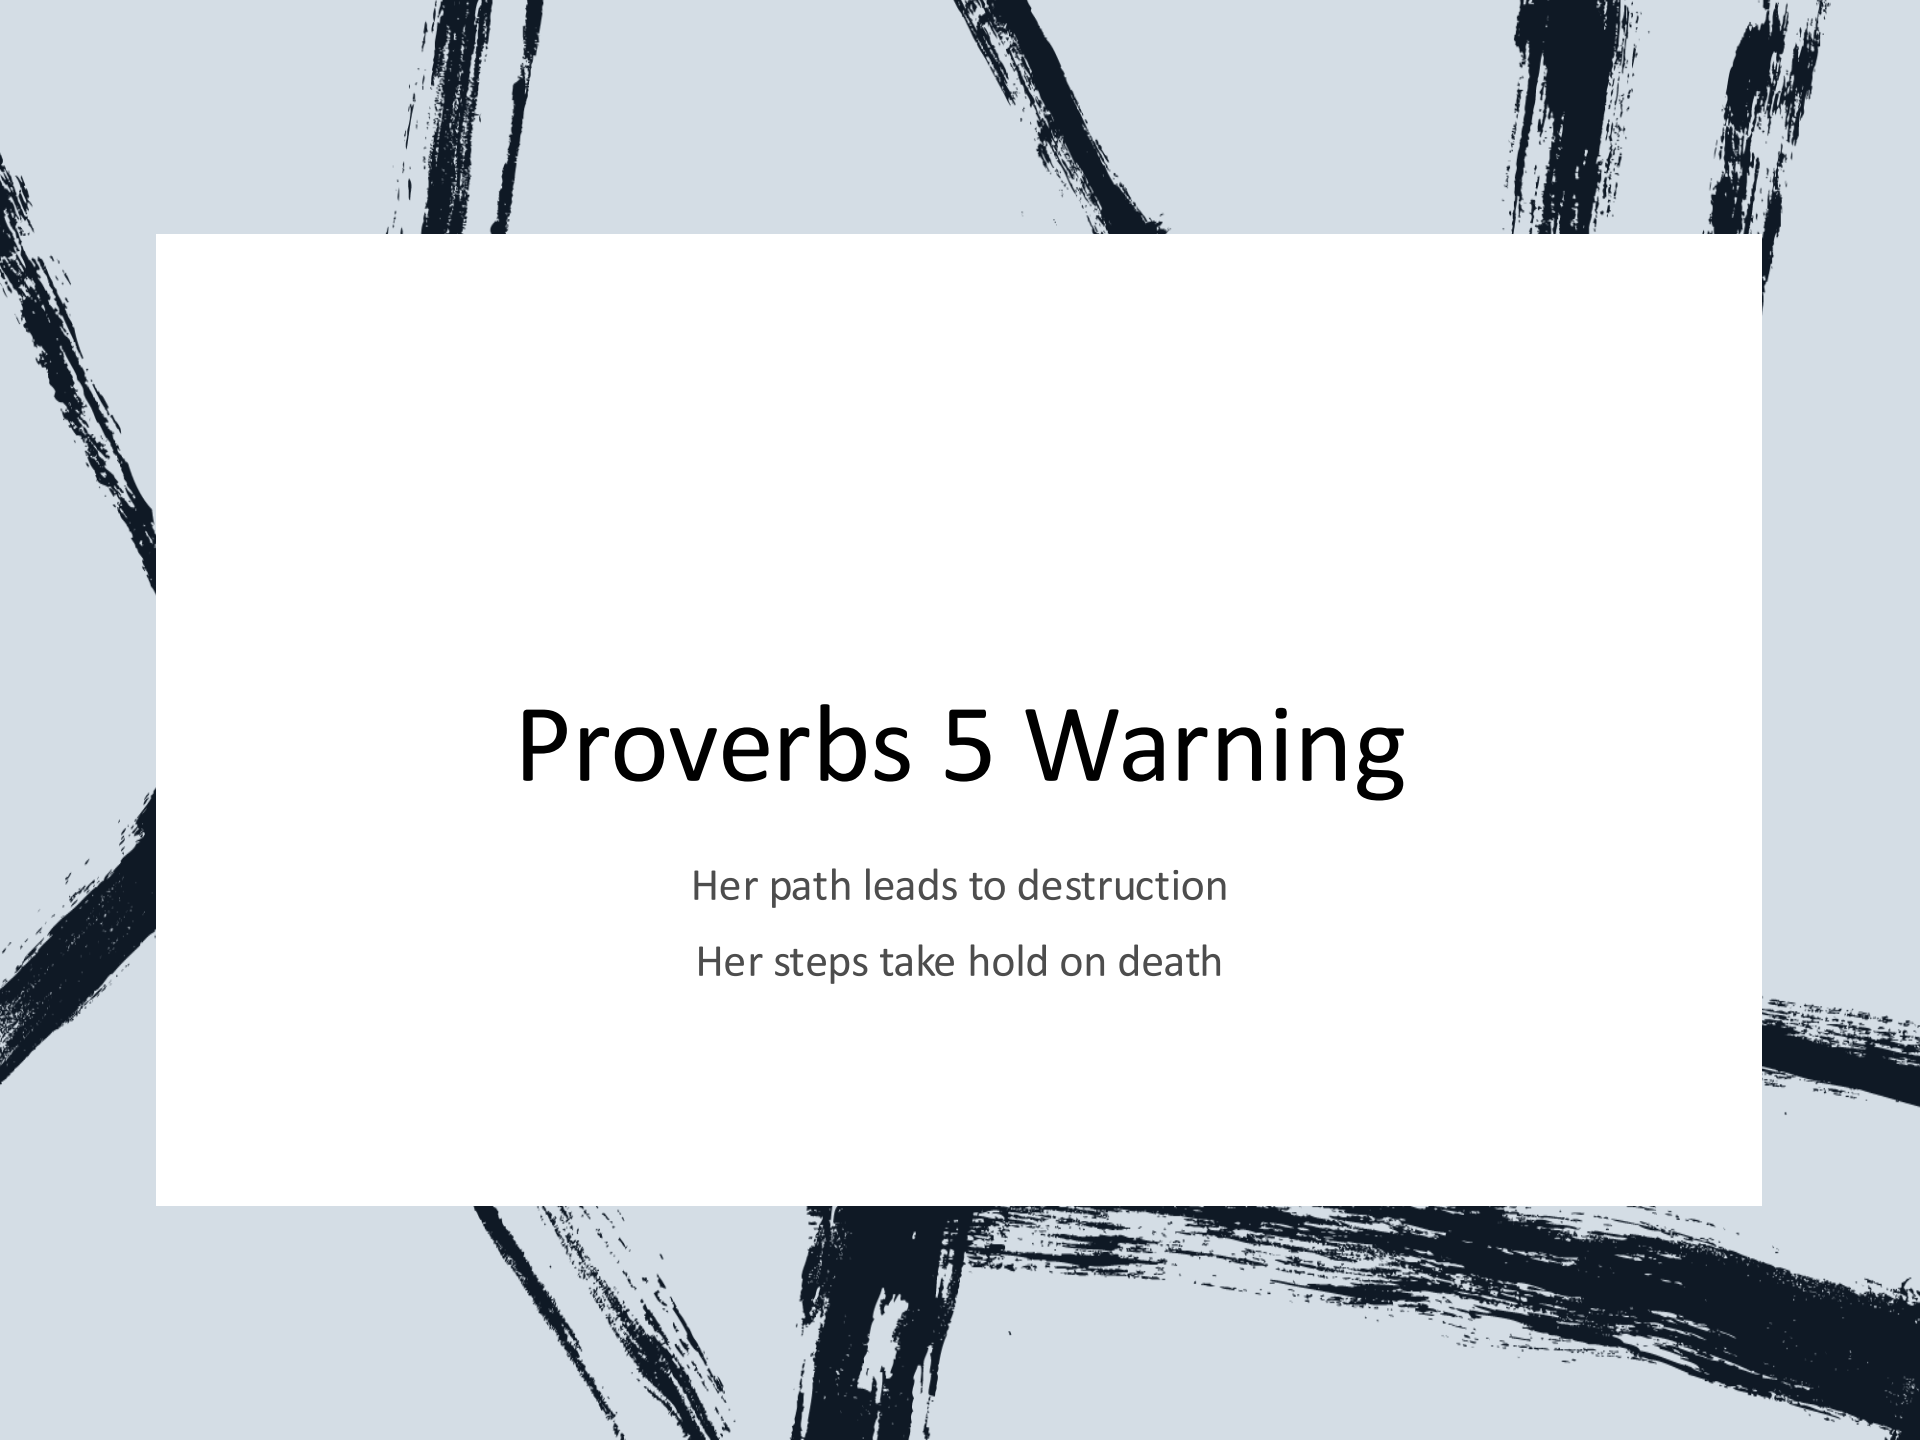

Counterfeit truth

Spiritually

The False Bride

Looks right
Feels good Speaks smooth
words
But leads away from Torah

Proverbs 5 Warning

Her path leads to destruction

Her steps take hold on death

Proverbs 7 Picture

Seduction
without boundaries
Immediate
pleasure
Long-term
destruction

+
•
o

Connection to Orakh Khayim

False bride pulls
you off:

THE PATH (Orakh)

THE LIFE (Chayim)

+
•
o

Key Danger

What feels right is not always truth

What is attractive is not always life

Broken Cistern Connection

Temporary satisfaction
Cannot sustain life

+
•
o

Signs of the False Bride

- Rejects instruction
- Removes boundaries
- Redefines truth
- Avoids accountability

The Outcome

No easy return
Loss of direction
Spiritual death

+
•
o

Contrast:
True Path

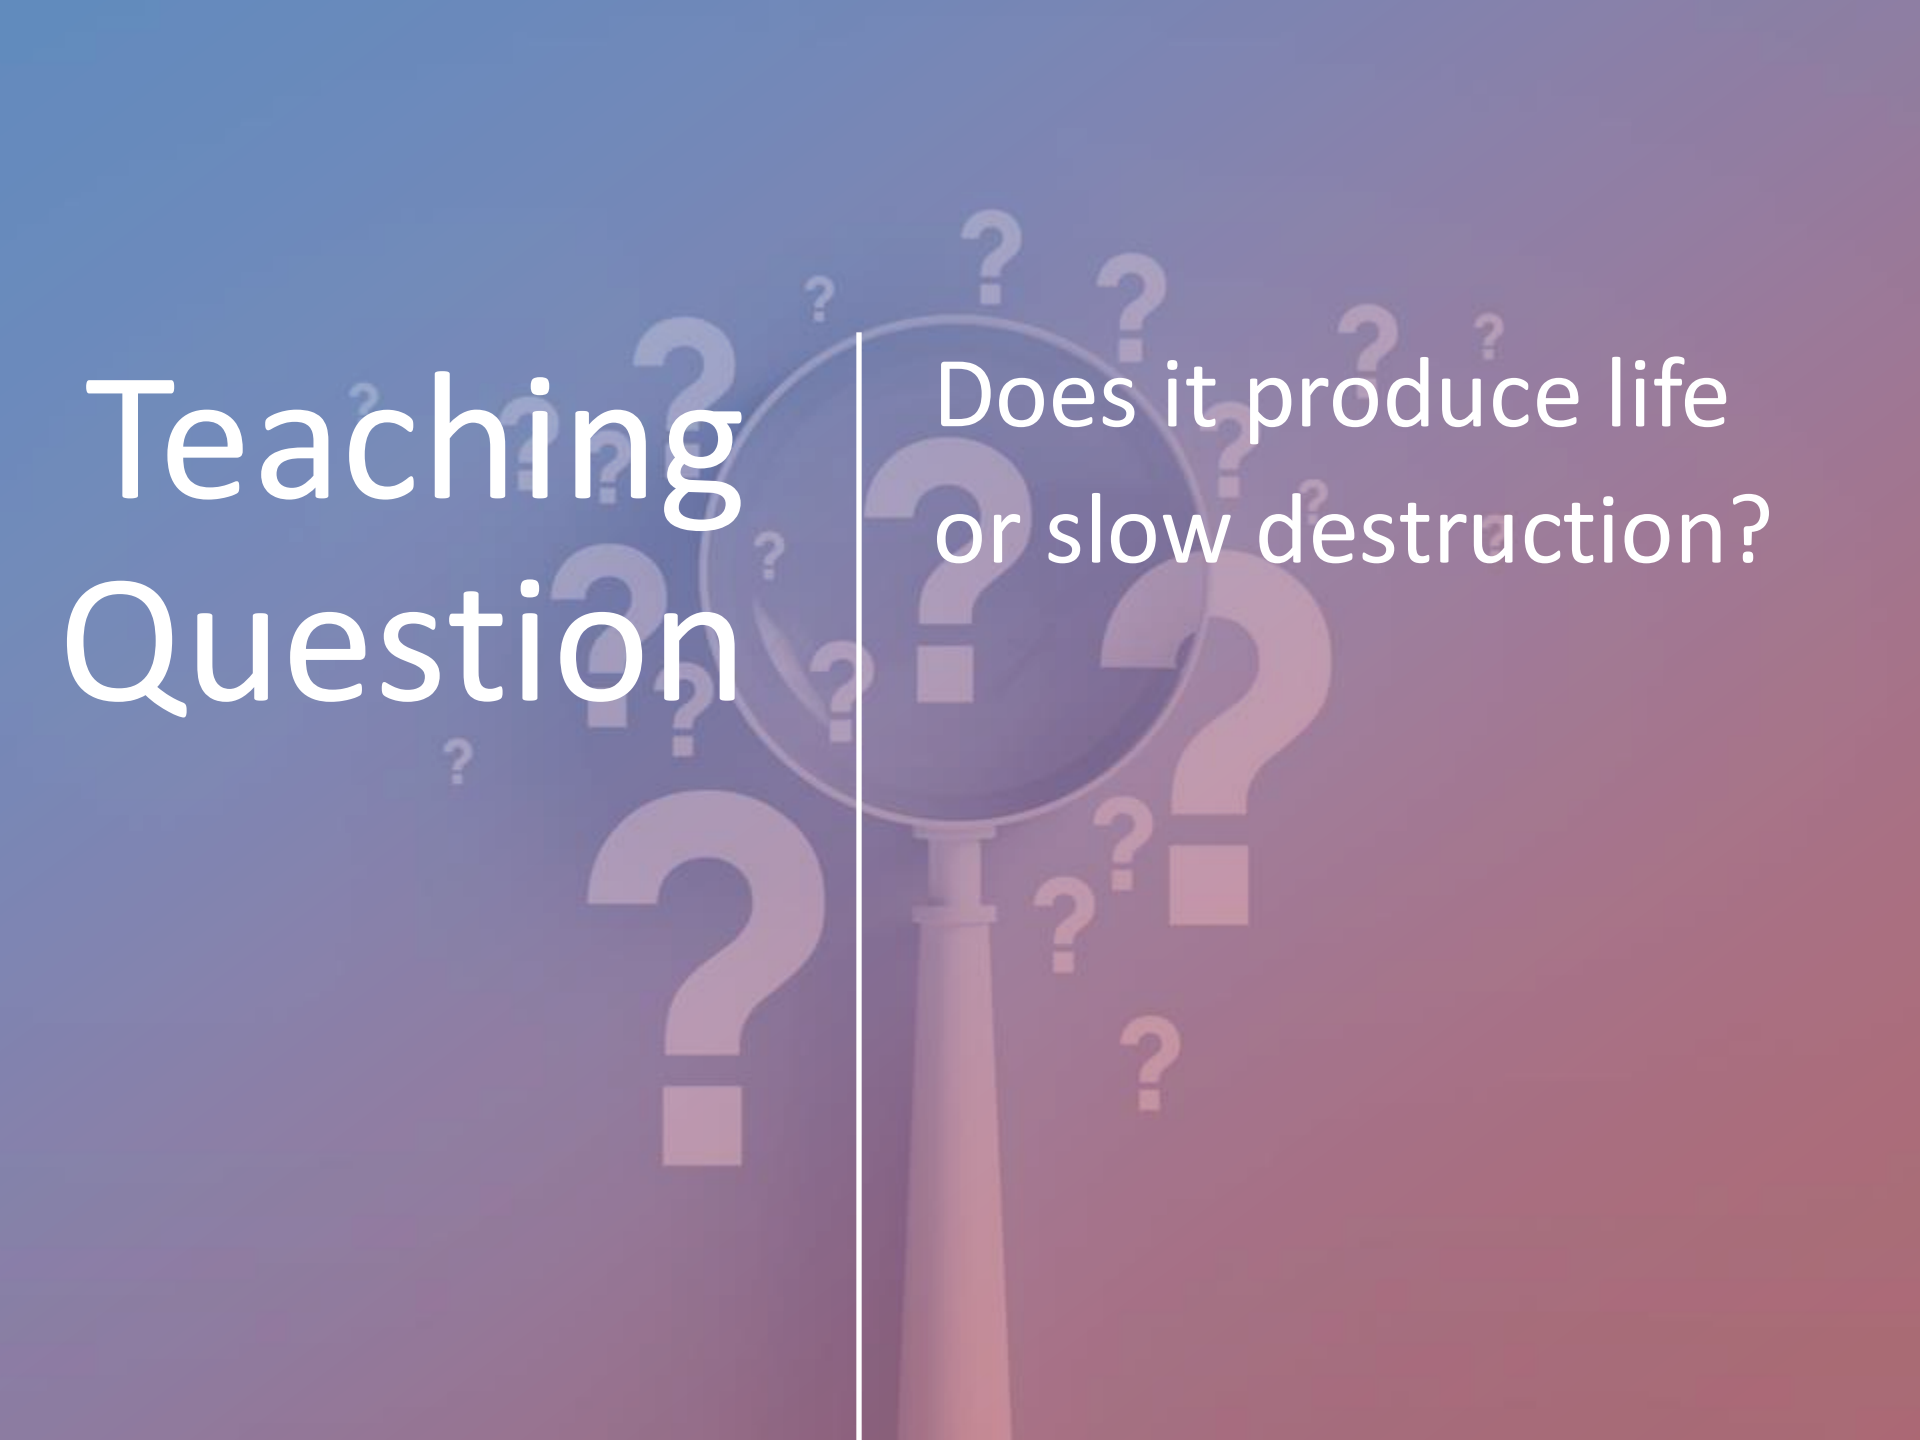

Torah
Instruction
Structure
Life (Chayim)

Teaching Question

What are you connected to
that is pulling you
off the path?

+
•
o

Teaching Question

The background features a large, faint magnifying glass with its handle pointing downwards. Numerous question marks of varying sizes are scattered across the image, some appearing inside the magnifying glass's lens. The overall color scheme is a gradient from blue on the left to purple on the right.

Does it produce life
or slow destruction?

Warning

Not everything
that feels right
leads to life

+
•
0

Return

Return to the path

Return to truth

Return to Torah